MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

NOW COMES Hospitality Ventures, LLC and, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(b), files its Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on the grounds that:

1. Plaintiff Heather Watts purports to assert a claim against Hospitality Ventures for allegedly violating the Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. § 2601 et seq. ("FMLA").
2. Only "eligible employees" can assert claims for violations of the FMLA. 29 U.S.C. §§ 2611, 2612.
3. Plaintiff was not an "eligible employee" because her employer employed fewer than fifty (50) employees within seventy-five (75) miles of her work site.
4. Consequently, Plaintiff cannot maintain a claim against Hospitality Ventures under the FMLA, and the Court should grant Hospitality Ventures' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on Plaintiff's FMLA claim.

5. In support of this Motion for Partial Summary Judgment, Hospitality Ventures relies on the attached Exhibits 1 - 5, and the Brief in Support, filed concurrently herewith.

WHEREFORE, Hospitality Ventures respectfully requests that the Court grant its Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.

This 26th day of March, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Heather Watts v. Hospitality Ventures, LLC
U.S. District Court, Middle District of Alabama
Case No. 2:06-CV-1149-MEF

Dear Ms. Duncan:

I write to follow-up on our conversation yesterday, and to confirm that Plaintiff consented to extending the deadline for Hospitality Ventures, LLC ("Hospitality Ventures") to answer or otherwise respond to Plaintiff's Complaint through and including February 16, 2007. Tomorrow, we will file the attached Consent Motion for Extension of Time.

Plaintiff named the wrong entity as the Defendant in this lawsuit. Plaintiff worked at the Fairfield Inn in Montgomery, Alabama, which is owned by Montgomery Ventures, LLC ("Montgomery Ventures"), not Hospitality Ventures. The attached copy of Montgomery Ventures' 2005 end-of-year payroll shows that Montgomery Ventures paid and employed Plaintiff. Accordingly, we request that Plaintiff amend her Complaint to: 1) remove Hospitality Ventures as the Defendant; and 2) name Montgomery Ventures as the Defendant.

We also request that Plaintiff amend her Complaint to dismiss her claim under the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA"). To be an "eligible employee" under the FMLA, an employee must have been employed at a worksite where 50 or more employees were employed within 75 miles of that worksite. 29 U.S.C. §2611(2)(B)(ii); 29 CFR §825.110(a). The attached payroll shows that during 2005, Montgomery Ventures never employed more than 45 employees. In addition, Montgomery Ventures does not own or operate any other facilities in Alabama. Because Montgomery Ventures did not employ 50 or more employees within 75 miles of Plaintiff's former worksite, Plaintiff was not an "eligible employee" under the FMLA, and she cannot maintain an FMLA claim against Montgomery Ventures. 29 U.S.C. §2611(2)(B)(ii); 29 CFR §825.110(a). If Plaintiff does not dismiss her FMLA claim, Defendant will move for summary judgment on Plaintiff's FMLA claim, and for an award of attorneys' fees incurred in preparing such a motion.

I will amend the pleadings later this week, however after discussing the matter with my client, and reviewing our evidence, it appears Hospitality Ventures published the personnel manual and gave direction with Ms. Watts, including setting her bonus plan.

The fact that the parent company operates under a local name in each venue is not, without further discovery, adequate in my mind to dismissing the case.

You may also want to review Minard v. ITC Delta Communications 2006 WL 1000572 (5th Cir. April 18, 2006) for a discussion of the FMLA's definition of an "eligible employee" as not being a limit on the federal courts' subject matter jurisdiction, following Arbaugh that an employer may be estopped from asserting an employee was ineligible for FMLA leave is the employer represented to employee that she was eligible and she relied upon that representation to her detriment.

See also, equitable estoppel.

At this point, it doesn't appear that we will amend the complaint. Alicia Haynes is filing her Notice of Appearance today. Your answer for Hospitality Ventures is the only one that plays a factor at this time.

AFFIDAVIT OF KAREN KISH

STATE OF GEORGIA)
COUNTY OF FULTON)

Personally appeared before the undersigned officer duly authorized by law to administer oaths, Karen Kish, who after first being duly sworn states, on oath:

I understand that this Affidavit will be submitted in the civil action styled, Heather Watts v. Hospitality Ventures, LLC, Civil Action No. 2:06CV1149-MEF, pending in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama.

I am over twenty-one (21) years of age and am competent to testify to the matters contained herein. This Affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge.

1. I am employed by Hospitality Ventures Management, Inc. I am responsible for overseeing, preparing, and maintaining payroll records for Hospitality Ventures, LLC; Montgomery Ventures, LLC; and all of their affiliated entities.

2. From June 24, 2004, through December 31, 2005, Montgomery Ventures, Hospitality Ventures, and all of their affiliated entities paid through Montgomery Ventures' payroll all of their employees working at the Fairfield Inn by Marriott, located at 5601 Carmichael Road, Montgomery, Alabama, 36117 (the "Hotel").

3. From June 24, 2004, through November 9, 2005, Montgomery Ventures, Hospitality Ventures, and all of their affiliated entities did not have employees working at any location within seventy-five (75) miles of the Hotel other than at the Hotel.

4. Montgomery Ventures prepares and maintains payroll records in the regular course of its business.

5. The attached Exhibit A is a true and correct redacted copy of Montgomery Ventures' payroll records for the end of calendar year 2004. The employees' personal information, such as Social Security numbers, addresses, telephone numbers, compensation, deductions, and withholding information has been redacted from Exhibit A.

6. The attached Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of Montgomery Ventures' payroll records for the end of calendar year 2005. The employees' personal information, such as Social Security numbers, addresses, telephone numbers, compensation, deductions, and withholding information has been redacted from Exhibit B.

7. Montgomery Ventures' payroll records contain each employee's hire date and, where applicable, date of termination. Analyzing the employees' hire and termination dates in Exhibits A and B reveals how many employees were on Montgomery Ventures' payroll each work week during 2004 and 2005.

8. The attached Exhibit C graphically illustrates how many employees were on Montgomery Ventures' payroll each work week during 2004. Exhibit C was prepared from the information contained in Exhibit A.

9. The attached Exhibit D graphically illustrates how many employees were on Montgomery Ventures' payroll each work week during 2005. Exhibit D was prepared from the information contained in Exhibit B.

10. Exhibits A, B, C, and D show that from June 24, 2004, through December 31, 2005, Montgomery Ventures always maintained fewer than fifty (50) employees on its payroll.

11. From June 24, 2004, through December 31, 2005, Montgomery Ventures, Hospitality Ventures, and all of their affiliated entities did not have any employees working anywhere in Alabama other than at the Hotel.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.
